Information for legal guardians

Children and teenagers under 16 must be accompanied by a guardian or have their guardian's consent. Without this declaration of consent, we cannot grant access to the Anif Forest Lake Tree-Climbing Park for insurance reasons.

The tree-climbing park is accessible to all persons not suffering from an illness or a mental or physical disorder which could constitute a danger for their own health or that of other persons when entering the park. We recommend sporty and comfortable clothes. Solid shoes are an absolute must; as is binding long hair together with a hair tie.

Please print and fill out this form and bring it with you, signed by your parent or guardian.
